DETAILED ACTION

Reasons for Allowance

1. Claims 1, 3-18, 10-15, 17-22, and 24-28 are allowed.

Note: These Claims are renumbered in the Index of Claims.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1, 3-18, 10-15, 17-22, and 24-28 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art of record teaches or fairly suggests mapping a port from the at least one selected network accessible printer to a port on the client machine corresponding to the default print queue in accordance with the value table, wherein the default print queue is able to pass through an actual port associated therewith for bidirectional data communication, inclusive of printer status information, with the at least one selected network accessible printer via the downloaded printer driver and the data connection.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

- a. Kim (US 2003/0128386) discloses a method of setting a port by which a basic port can be switched over to a physically interlinked port automatically or with permission or without permission from the user, and thus, the user does not need to physically, or through a program, change the basic port.

b. Lozano et al. (US 2004/0030809) discloses an automated method for testing peripherals and their drivers.

c. Kemp et al. (US 7,253,915) discloses a locally managed instance of a printer on a workstation which communicates to the printer over a peer-to-peer network by merely selecting an option to create a local printer and inputting an identifier of the printer, such as a network address.

d. Schacht et al. (US 6,959,437) discloses a system and method for installing printer driver software on a computer workstation that is network-connected to a printer.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
